

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception. I have been troubled with heart disease 33 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told me that I could not live a month. My face and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost putrid. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy. Mrs. Morgan, 509 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

NEWS OF KANSAS.

Ex-Secretary of State Woodson Buried at Leavenworth.

Damage Suit Against Ft. Scott Police Commissioners.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

Team of Wichita Horses Purchased for Chauncey Depew.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 8.—The funeral of Daniel Woodson, who was the first secretary of state of Kansas and at one time acting governor, took place here yesterday morning at 9:30. He died at Clamore, T. T. where he had been visiting his son, M. D. Woodson. He leaves three children living. One is the wife of Mr. T. K. Foster, of Kansas City, Kan. The others are Mr. Warren Woodson, of Easton, Kan., and Mosby D. Woodson, of Clamore, T. T. He was also an uncle to Robert Pate. A daughter died twelve years ago. The home of the deceased was at Coffeyville, Kan., where he was county clerk for the past fifteen years.

Daniel Woodson was born in Albemarle county, Virginia, May 25, 1824. He was editor of the Lynchburg Republican when little more than a boy. In 1851 he edited the Republican Advocate at Richmond, Va.

He came to Leavenworth in the early 50's, and at once took an active part in the troubles of that time. He was known as a "border ruffian." June 29, 1854, he was appointed territorial secretary of state at the time Governor Reeder was appointed, and was the first secretary of state in Kansas. He was acting as governor about the years 1857-8. In 1858 he was appointed receiver of public moneys with headquarters at Kickapoo, Leavenworth county. His career was an active one until his death.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS SUED.

A Ft. Scott Man Asks $5,000 Because They Don't Enforce the Law.

FT. SCOTT, Oct. 8.—W. B. Webster has filed another sensational damage suit in the district court—one that is a novelty in that line. In this action Henry J. Randall, a minor of the age of 11 years, by his mother, Harriet E. Randall, his next friend, is the plaintiff, who asks $5,000 damages from George Kurtz, Thomas Cochran, J. Bamberger and John Crow. The petition is a voluminous one. It charges the first named defendant with running a saloon and the last three—the Ft. Scott police commissioners—with accepting a bribe of the money made in the illegal and unlicensed business.

His grounds for damages are in the allegation that the defendant Kurtz sold the plaintiff's father intoxicating liquor for a beverage, and thus rendered him incapable of providing for his family; and that the defendant commissioners, in open violation of their oaths to uphold and enforce the laws of the state, refused to compel him to quit the business, but rather arranged with him for the carrying on of the same, contrary to law.

JEWELL COUNTY MAN HELD.

Arrested in Kansas City on a Telegram From His Mother.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 8.—At the request of Sheriff D. L. Haggart, of Jewell county, Kansas, the police last evening arrested a man who is known as J. E. Brady, J. H. Baker or J. H. Bradford. The telegram requesting his arrest read: "Shadow a man calling for two trunks expressed from Burr Oak, Kan., over the Union Pacific railroad, addressed to J. E. Brady. Arrest the man. He is described as five feet nine inches in height, weighs 150 pounds, has dark complexion, dark mustache, dark eyes. His name is J. H. Baker. Hold him until Monday."

When arrested he was accompanied by a plain looking woman withered hair, and when taken to the station registered as J. H. Bradford. The detectives believe the man has eloped with some other man's wife and the other man wants the trunks.

BELIEVED TO BE DEAD.

A Young Man Living Near Atchison Never Reached His Destination.

ATCHISON, Oct. 8.—Will McGowan, a young man who used to live with George Shackleford, south of town, left in March for Johnson county where he had relatives living and where he hoped to secure employment. Nothing more was thought of the matter until a few days ago when Shackleford received word from Johnson county that the young man had not arrived at his destination. A young man answering McGowan's description was drowned in the river near the soldiers' home a few days after he left his home in Walnut township. Upon learning a few days ago that McGowan had not reached Johnson county Shackleford had decided that he was drowned. His relatives have been notified and an investigation will be made.

DEPEW BUYS KANSAS HORSES.

The Famous New Yorker Buys a Team of Horses at Wichita.

WICHITA, Oct. 8.—Chauncey Depew will soon be driving down the boulevards and the avenues of Gotham behind two Wichita horses. During the fair Grant Hayfield drove two fast bay mares. They are a perfect team and can make the mile under forty. A man came to him and told him he wanted the pair. He said he would give him $800 for them and Grant took it. The man said his name was John J. Hilgert and said the purchase was made for Chauncey Depew of New York. Mr. Depew, he said, had delegated him to get him a fine team and he knew where to go. Patchen and John R. Gentry were reared and that Wichita must have some more like them. He came to the fair and watched. He seemed delighted with his purchase.

The Sunday services at the different denominational churches were largely attended.

PANIC AT A THEATER.

The Cry of Fire Caused a Mad Rush to Get Out in a Chicago House.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Panic at Jacob's Charles Street theater followed the discovery of fire in an adjoining building last night. Nearly half the audience rushed from the theater and the remainder was thrown into confusion before it was discovered that no lives were in danger. The employees and police at the theater made every effort to prevent a panic and to assure the audience the fire was in an adjoining building, but this had no effect upon the frightened men and women who were determined to get out at all hazards.

The greatest confusion attended the wild rush of those who were in the gallery. Three hundred men and boys were packed together in the narrow stairway leading to the street. They swore, howled and fought in their mad rush to break down the door. Only the effective and timely work of a policeman prevented their trampling each other to death. After several minutes determined work with his club and voice the officer succeeded in clearing the door and stairway and getting the crowd under control. A number of persons were seriously injured in the crush and several women were removed in a fainting condition but none were fatally hurt.

ANARCHISTS AGAIN ACTIVE.

A Plot Extending All Over Italy Discovered by the Police.

MILAN, Oct. 8.—There has been a renewal of anarchistic activity here. An infernal machine has been found upon the window sill of the police barracks. A lighted fuse was attached to the machine. Happily the fuse was extinguished before an explosion occurred. Several arrests have been made as a result of the police inquiry into the outrage.

ROME, Oct. 8.—According to the Chicago, the police have discovered an anarchistic plot extending over the whole of Italy and organized by Albani, the notorious anarchist.

TROUBLE NOT OVER.

The Worst in the Madagascar Question is Yet to Come.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The authorities here do not consider the Madagascar question, which looked so ominous during the last week as settled, but merely postponed until the latter part of this month. The French official who has been authorized to take summary steps to maintain France's position in Madagascar will not arrive here until October 13. The recent flurry was due to his departure from Paris, but it will be, when he arrives at his destination and begins the execution of his vigorous policy, that the real contest between France and Great Britain may be begun.

Semi-official advices received here are to the effect that the French official is directed to close the long contention by asserting the rights of France, and then backing them up with force. To this end 2,000 French troops will soon follow the official.

It is believed, therefore, that while the recent announcement that France had blockaded Madagascar ports was premature, it foreshadows stirring events in Madagascar as soon as the French envoy reaches there.

HUSBAND WANTS ALIMONY.

W. B. Rapier Will Have to Go to the Poor House Unless His Wife Helps Him.

A motion is being argued in the district court today to compel Mrs. Lella Z. Rapier to support her divorced husband, William B. Rapier. The case is an unusual one and has been in the district court more than a year. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Rapier lived on a farm west of Topeka, which is valued at $12,500. The property all finally got into Mrs. Rapier's name. The domestic trouble and a divorce resulted.

Mr. Rapier is over 70 years of age, while his wife is not much over 50. Lawyer Isenhardt says his client, Mr. Rapier, is completely destitute and will have to go to the poor house unless he can get a part of the considerable property now alleged to be in his wife's name.
